SATURDAY, DECEMBER 14TH

WINTER TRAINING CAMP

Ed & Baer Parker

Founders and Architects of the Paxtial Arts

Life is complicated. There are times when violent solutions may be necessary, however the majority of our time is spent in a state of being where we are actively working to cultivate peace in our life. The transition from peace to violence can happen in an instant, but it is not uncommon that such transitions take enough time that we have the option to stop the escalation of things and can avoid having to respond with violence.

Peace Keeper & Peace Maker

Peace can oftentimes be reestablished by a peace keeper through the uses of intentional violence to break their opposition in a manner that results in a win/lose outcome.

A peace maker has the skills to deal with violence in such a way that their opposition is not left physically broken, unconscious, or dead. The result of this is often a win/win outcome for both parties involved.

Would you rather be a peace keeper or a peace maker when dealing with your "drunk uncle Bob", your raging teenager, or your friend playing excessively rough with you?

The Paxtial Arts

In martial arts, we often start by training the skills of the peace keeper. As our skills develop, we should also build the confidence and capabilities to integrate the peace maker's abilities and ethos.

Senior Ranks Seminar

9:00am-12:00pm

Junior Ranks Seminar

2:00pm-3:00pm

Itinerary Is Subject To Change without Notification

A trained Paxtial Artist can continuously collapse a human structure with a feathered touch application and within certain windows of timing, proper angle, and positions. There is no striking or restraining, only a collapsing of your opponent until he or she tires, may be reasoned with, or until others can offer assistance by helping to diffuse the situation.

Join us this December as Mr. And Mrs. Parker explore the ways of the peace maker and how Paxtial Arts can be of use to you.
