The American Institute of Kenpo (hereby referred to as the AIK) is an organization dedicated to the development of character, competence, physical well-being, and internal peace through the medium of the art of self-defense.

AIK is a professional black belt organization, which means we extend the invitation to each student to realize his or her own goals of achieving black belt excellence.

AIK is committed to maintaining the integrity and legacy of our chosen marital arts. We encourage each student to travel their path of self-discovery as he or she internalizes the principles and values of the martial arts.
